

March 2024 Gitigaan Classes

Tuesdays 5:30–6:30pm, a light meal served at 5pm
In person at Brookston Community Center, 8200 Belich
St Cloquet MN

Please register at tinyurl.com/2024Gitigaan

March 5 Cultivating Color and Connection with Sustainable dyes with Cristina Weske, (Cherokee Nation) University of Minnesota Duluth Grad Student. An Immersive workshop on creating beautiful and sustainable artwork with natural dyes.

March 12 Farmers Markets and Food Hubs with Sina War, Director of Engagement & Inclusion for the Minnesota Farmers Market Association. Discussion and update on farmers markets and food hubs in the area.

March 19 Invasive Species and Agriculture with Kelsey Taylor, Invasive Species Coordinator for the Fond du Lac Band. Presentation and Conversation on the environmental importance of Identifying, reporting, and preventing invasive species within agriculture.

March 26 Garden Tool Maintenance: Getting the Most Out of Your Garden Tools with Kelsey Myhre, Sustainability Coordinator at FDLTCC Environmental Institute. A hands-on workshop exploring the benefits of garden tool maintenance and restoration. BYOT (Bring Your Own Tools) and a pair of work gloves.

Classes are subject to change. For further updates follow @FDLGitigaan
If you have any questions reach out to CamiFischer@fdlrez.com