

A person wearing a red t-shirt with a graphic that says "HEALING CIRCLE RUN" is holding a long wooden staff. At the end of the staff is a dreamcatcher with colorful ribbons. The background is a grassy field with trees.

Healing Circle Run

July 13-20, 2019

Video Link

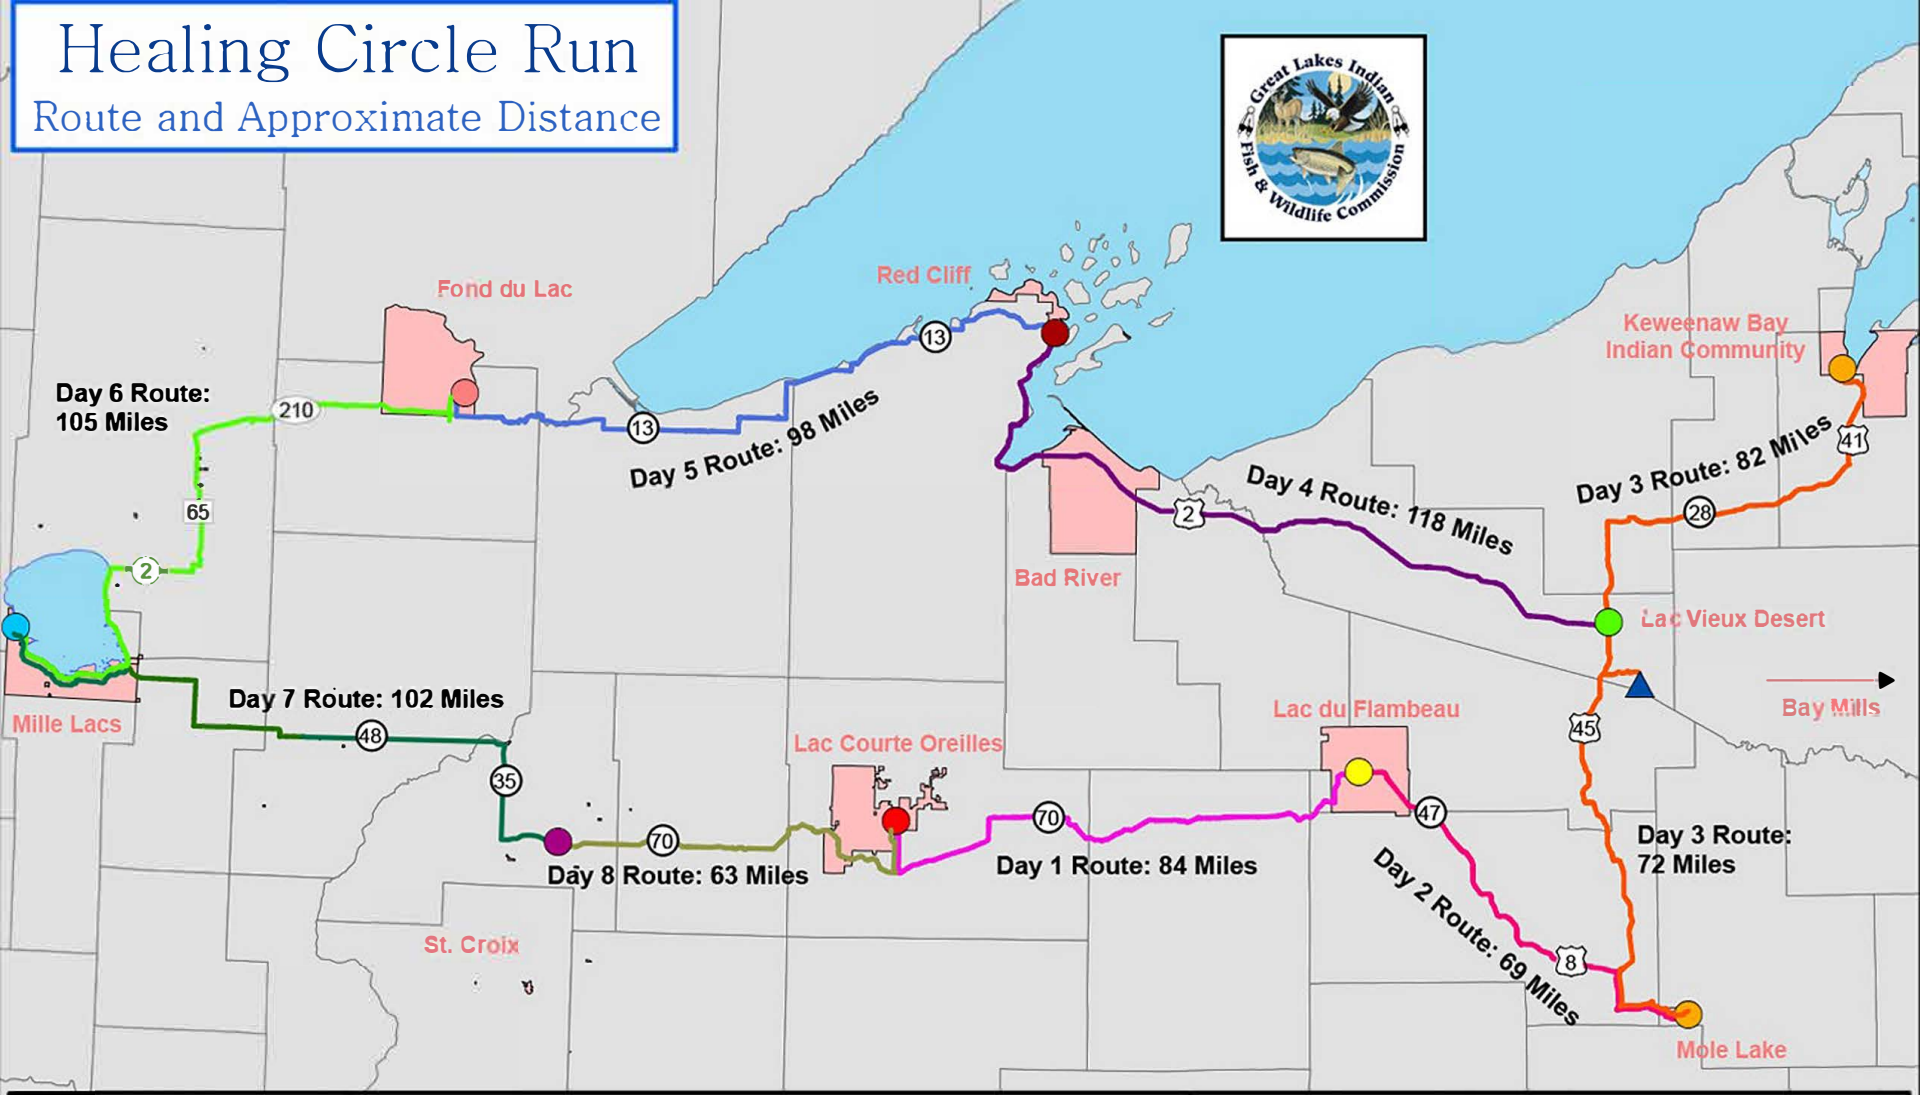

The 2019 Healing Circle Run connects ten Ojibwe reservations in northern Wisconsin, Michigan, and Minnesota. See map for details.

For more information or if you are interested in participating as a core runner or group of runners, please contact Jenny Krueger-Bear at GLIFWC at jkrueger@glifwc.org.

Healing Circle Run

Route and Approximate Distance

- Day 1 Route
- Day 2 Route
- Day 3 Route
- Day 4 Route
- Day 5 Route
- Day 6 Route
- Day 7 Route
- Day 8 Route

Route Starting Point

- Day 1: Lac Courte Oreilles - Pipestone Creek
- Day 2: Lac Du Flambeau - Round House
- Day 3: Mole Lake - Cultural Center and Keweenaw Bay Indian Community - Baraga
- Day 4: Lac Vieux Desert - Elderly Building
- Day 5: Red Cliff - Tribal Campground
- Day 6: Fond Du Lac - School
- Day 7: Mille Lacs - Eddy's Resort
- Day 8: St. Croix - Hertel Community Center

Route Ending Point

- Day 1: Lac Du Flambeau - Round House
- Day 2: Mole Lake - Cultural Center
- Day 3: Lac Vieux Desert - Pow-Wow Grounds
- Day 4: Red Cliff - Tribal Campground
- Day 5: Fond Du Lac - School
- Day 6: Mille Lacs - Eddy's Resort
- Day 7: St. Croix - Hertel Community Center
- Day 8: Lac Courte Oreilles - Pipestone Creek